

2009 Space Weather Enterprise Forum

Closing Remarks

Mr. Samuel P. Williamson
Federal Coordinator for Meteorology and Chairman,
National Space Weather
Program Council

Objectives

- ☑ • Explore strategic partnering
- ☑ • Gather actionable information to move the enterprise forward
 - User information: Needs, requirements, and priorities
 - Input to new NSWP Strategic Plan
 - Input to new NSWP Implementation Plan
- ☑ • Advance the science
- ☑ • Facilitate opportunities to transition research to operations
- ☑ • Continue education and outreach

Next Steps

- Prepare brief summary report
 - Summarize key results of the forum
 - Document action items
- Address actions identified
- Collect and analyze needs, requirements, and priorities information received
- Focus on final draft of NSWP Strategic Plan

Post – Forum Information

- Forum materials available online
 - Abstract / Bio booklet (updated)
 - Final agenda
 - Summary Report
 - Presentations

http://www.nswp.gov/swef/swef_09.html

<http://www.ofcm.gov/>

Feedback

- Please provide us your feedback on the usefulness and quality of the forum when you receive the post-forum message
- Or call us: (301) 427-2002

samuel.williamson@noaa.gov michael.bonadonna@noaa.gov michael.babcock@noaa.gov

Final Comments

- Thank you!
 - Speakers, moderators, and panelists
 - Session coordinators & rapporteurs
 - OFCM Team – Forum planning and coordination
 - Marriott hotel and staff
 - National Space Weather Program Council
 - Attendees!

2009 Space Weather Enterprise Forum

Space Weather and our Technological Society – Are We Ready for Solar Max?

Sponsored by the National Space Weather
Program Council

Commerce, Defense, Energy, Interior, State, Transportation, NASA, NSF
Office of the Federal Coordinator for Meteorological Services and Supporting Research