The Working Group for Cooperative Support and Backup (WG/CSAB) serves as the executive agent for the Committee for Operational Processing Centers (COPC). The principal focus of the WG/CSAB is to coordinate and document the cooperative support and backup requirements related to the data collection and processing, and the development and dissemination of centralized meteorological, oceanographic, and satellite products within the federal government, which are the responsibility of the major operational processing centers (OPC) of the Departments of Commerce and Defense. The OPCs include the:

The source of documentation for these requirements is the Federal Plan for Cooperative Support and Backup Among Operational Processing Centers. ~~In addition to membership from~~

~~the OPCs, the National Weather Service Office of Systems Operations (NWS/OSO) (Telecommunications Gateway), which provides communications support for both NCEP and NESDIS/OSDPD), also serves on the working group.~~

2. MEMBERSHIP

- a. Each organization or activity holding membership on the parent committee, ~~to include NWS/OSO,~~ is entitled to place members and alternates on the working group. Organizations and activities may also have technical advisors or observers on the working group as they desire. Organizations and activities shall maintain a current listing of their participants on file with the Office of the Federal Coordinator for Meteorology (OFCM).
- b. By applying to the Office of the Federal Coordinator, additional agencies of the U.S. Government may participate as members when matters under consideration are of concern to them. Subject to the concurrence of the members, organizations (e.g., public, private, industrial) having substantial interest in specific matters may be invited by the Chairperson to participate in discussions of these matters.
- c. The chairperson of the working group shall be appointed by the parent committee for a 3-year term.

The final ROA will be distributed to all working group members, and the results of the meeting will be presented to the parent committee.
